4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 39-60 are allowed.

With regards to claim 39, the prior art of record, alone or combined, does neither anticipate nor render obvious a server executing a plurality of steps, inter alia, as a whole, enabling a buyer to create one or more requests for proposal for the several types of telecommunications services available from the plurality of sellers, presenting the several types of telecommunication services available from the plurality of sellers to the buyer terminal, enabling the buyer to select at least one type of telecommunication service from the several types of telecommunication services, receiving one or more requests for purchasing at least one type of telecommunication service selected from the several types of telecommunication services at the server, the one or more requests being associated with the buyer, receiving information from the buyer during the purchase of at least one type of telecommunication service regarding prior usage of the selected at least one type of telecommunication services of the buyer associated with a previous seller of telecommunication service, receiving a plurality of questions from the buyer during the purchase of at least one type of telecommunication service, the questions being associated with the selected at least one type of telecommunication services, verifying the identity of the buyer from a plurality of data sources, generating an offer to provide the selected at least one type of telecommunication service to the buyer in response to receiving the one or more requests and receiving the information, the offer being associated with a provider of telecommunication services, receiving a response to the offer, wherein the response is associated with the buyer, and wherein the response may be an acceptance of the offer or a rejection of the offer, and notifying the provider of the response and an identity of the buyer.

With regards to the other two independent claims their limitations are similar to the limitations of claim 39 and are therefore analyzed and allowed for the same reasons as set forth for claim 39 above.

The reasons for allowance for all dependent claims are the same as set forth for claim 39 above.

5. Discussion of best cited prior art: The applicant's arguments filed 8/18/09, see pages 7-12 are compelling and persuasive that Walker et al. (US Patent 6,345,090) combined with the teachings of the published article, "Bell offers Answers for Commonly Asked Customer Questions", Anonymous, St Louis does neither anticipate nor render obvious all the limitations recited as a whole in claims 39, 54 and 58.

Art Unit: 3625

Business Journal (St. Louis MO, US), v7 N26 s3 plc, March 23, 1987 ("Bell")

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
